

NETWORK OF SUPPORT

WHERE

Your support extends across Burlington, Halton Hills, Hamilton, Milton, and Oakville, ensuring access to vital local services. This network effectively addresses community-specific challenges, ensuring no one is overlooked or left behind.

WHAT

United Way uses local expertise to unite people and organizations to tackle complex social issues and meet immediate community needs. With a single donation to United Way, you're supporting 124 local programs that benefit over 226,500+ individuals with diverse needs across our community.

HOW

Your support fuels local solutions by tackling urgent community needs and addressing the root causes behind them.

$100/
MONTH

provides 4 families with a 1-month supply of their infant essentials including diapers, formula, and baby food

$30/
MONTH

provides delivery of 48 meals to isolated individuals in their homes to support their health and wellness

$8/
MONTH

provides resources for 2 women to attend skill-building workshops on financial literacy and independence

WHY

When challenges grow, local stability matters. Your gift to United Way protects essential programs, helping individuals and families access support when they need it most. Together, we meet urgent needs and build lasting resilience across Halton and Hamilton.

WELLNESS

30% of Canadian seniors face the risk of isolation.

POVERTY

WHO

You're helping young moms like Montanna access critical support, build life skills, and create a brighter future.

At 18, pregnant and alone, Montanna found stability through a United Way-supported program. With United Way's help, she graduated high school, got her driver's license, and was accepted into college.

"United Way didn't just give me a place to stay – they gave me hope, confidence, and the tools to build a future for me and my son."

OUR PROMISE TO YOU

Your gift fuels urgent, local action.

When you give, help arrives exactly where – and when – it's needed most. Together, we protect what matters to our community and the people who call it home.

With your support, we will:

- Keep local agencies and programs strong and stable
- Partner with all levels of government and community organizations
- Base every decision on solid research, local data, and proven solutions
- Advocate for the non-profit sector and drive lasting recovery
- Build capacity, spark innovation, and empower those we serve
- Connect programs so families receive seamless support
- Ensure equity, diversity, and inclusion guide every action
- Your generosity isn't just a donation – it's an investment in a stronger, more connected community.
