

COMMUNITY IN ACTION BURLINGTON

ISSUE

In Burlington, the staggering rise in living costs is pushing more families into poverty, creating barriers that prevent children from growing up healthy and engaged. Child poverty across Halton has been increasing since 2020. As families struggle to meet basic needs, reliance on local programs is growing. With your support, we can ensure every child and their family has access to the resources they need to thrive.

In Burlington, 10.5% of children are living in poverty. This reality affects families in neighbourhoods across the entire city, not just in one area, but community-wide.
