

COMMUNITY IN ACTION OAKVILLE

ISSUE

Food security is a growing concern in Oakville, affecting everything from childhood learning to physical health. Through our network of support, we ensure access to healthy, culturally appropriate food and help individuals build the means to support themselves and their families. With your support, we can remove barriers and make lasting food security a reality for more families.

Food banks across Oakville are facing unprecedented demand, with some reporting a 150% rise in usage and others supporting more than 1,000 individuals weekly.
